

September Newsletter

Rotary
Bloomington-Normal
Daybreak

August Had Great Programs

Not only did Adam Fox share with us the rich history of the Normal Theater, he also informed us about all of the new activities that they offer. Stand-Up Comedy Open Mics, Open Mics for Musicians, Concerts, TedX Talks, etc. He mentioned that they rent the theater out to groups. We may want to think about this for a future fundraiser idea. Check them out on Facebook.

Adam Fox of the Normal Theater

August Service

TWO SCOOPS and the Gang were back! I was sorry to miss this wonderful event at the Midwest Food Bank. Juan brought his wife, two girls, and father in-law to help out and make our small, but mighty group even stronger! Ken also brought his lovely wife. The "Gang" also included Joe M., Keli, and TWO SCOOPS himself.

Midwest Food Bank, one of August's Service Projects

Upcoming Speakers

9/8 Dr. Mike Lockett

He is a retired educator and now a professional story teller. Title of the presentation is: Learning to Understand Other Cultures Through Stories. He will speak about his experience through story telling in various areas including overseas.

9/15 Cemetery Walk

Candace Summers from the McLean County Museum of History will talk about upcoming Cemetery Walk (Oct 1-2).

9/22 Blo/No Triathlon

Kevin McCarthy will talk about athletes and the program in the twin cities for triathlon.

9/29 Affordable Housing in McLean County

Laura Furlong and Karen Major will do a presentation on task force efforts in regards to affordable housing in McLean County.

September Service Projects

Keli will update us shortly for opportunities in September. Look for updates in the mid-month newsletter!